IV. MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS

A. Molly

- i. This Semester's Mentorship Event
 - i. Discussion:

- Not a meet and greet, might open up to having more mentorship pairs such that the mentors will email Molly and request to be a mentor
- Potential ideas: baseball game, roller blading, or ice skating
- Domonique suggested laser tag – Molly says too expensive – Domonique says group rates?
- Domonique suggested Dave & Busters with $10 play cards? – Molly says could be expensive
- Corrie – craft nights and roller blading if SBA hosts multiple events

ii. Sweatshirts

- Crest style shirt was chosen
- Can work with the bookstore on styles in the future if successful
- $25 proposed – will break even if sell 70% of the shirts
 - Would make $400 if sell all
- $30 – will break even if sold little over 50% (~57%)
 - Would make $750 if sell all
- Will order 10 small, 20 med., 20 lg., and 5 ea. of extended sizes for a total of 70 shirts
- Bookstore needs money upfront and then they will make the order
- Katie – better make shirts cheaper at $25 to ensure that we get sales; either way, we profit
- Will – stipulation on how many can a person can order?
 - Molly – no, not this time
- Katie – not in the budget, this will cost $1,332.50
 - Will – taking out of savings?
 - Molly – no. We should move make it a budget item so we don't move things around all the time
- Bethany – asks if anyone would like to make a motion to make the necessary funds a budget item
- 1st motion:
 - Domonique moves to create a budget item for the sweatshirts and reallocate $1,400
- 2nd motion:
 - Josh
- Molly suggested making announcements in the sweatshirt to promote sales
