

Juris Doctor (J.D.)

90 CREDIT HOURS | ON CAMPUS

At Regent University School of Law, we equip students with the knowledge and skills necessary to thrive in any law-related discipline. Our J.D. program, approved by the American Bar Association, uniquely blends this knowledge and practice with a Christian worldview. Here, you will receive first-rate skills training in appellate advocacy, trial advocacy, negotiation, and mediation. Students typically complete this degree in three years; however, you can choose from Traditional J.D., J.D. Flex, and accelerated formats.

Integrity-Focused Legal Skills Training

Gain a thorough knowledge of the law in key areas: torts, contracts, property, civil procedure, criminal law, constitutional law, business associations, and evidence.

Develop practical legal skills through internship and externship opportunities, clinical practice, and a partnership with the American Center for Law and Justice.

OTHER OPPORTUNITIES:

Compete on award-winning teams: Moot Court, Negotiations, and Trial Advocacy.

Participate in international study opportunities in Mongolia, South Korea, or Spain.

Serve on the Regent Law Review, a forum for presenting academically excellent scholarship on relevant issues facing the legal community today from the perspective of a historic Christian worldview.

Join our select Honors Program reserved for top academic achievers: smaller class sizes, special events with distinguished guests, curricular flexibility, and apprenticeship field placement opportunities.

Advance in your career through success on the bar exam.

About Regent University School of Law

The School of Law offers a rigorous, ABA-approved legal education taught by an internationally recognized faculty deeply committed to students' success and teaching in the context of a Christian worldview. Our faculty is composed of professors, practitioners, and legal scholars from some of the nation's finest schools, including Harvard, the University of Virginia, the University of Chicago, and Regent.

Providing excellent and principled legal counsel, our 4,465-plus alumni exemplify Regent Law's commitment to Christian Leadership to Change the World. Regent Law is situated in Virginia Beach, Virginia, minutes from the Atlantic Ocean, less than a two-hour drive from Richmond, and less than four hours from Washington, D.C.

"Regent was the only law school I considered because of its unique mission and caliber of graduates. My professors taught me that when you have great adversity, you also have great opportunity. That's something I get to live out every day as I strive to make a difference."
