[1] Students may choose electives, in consultation with their academic advisor, from any courses in the law school's J.D. catalog. Students whose legal training is not in the common-law legal tradition are required to choose one elective (as determined by the program Director) from basic common-law courses (usually Torts, Contracts, or Property). The total of 25 elective credits applies after LAW 511 has been passed; 24 credits are required if LAW 511 has not yet been passed.

Graduation Requirements

✓ 30 Total credit hours, ✓ 2.00 Minimum overall GPA, ✓ Students who receive a D- grade must repeat the course prior to graduation
