Thank you for your interest in applying to Regent University’s Naval ROTC Preparatory Program Scholarship. The NPP Scholarship provides economically and/or academically disadvantaged applicants with a unique opportunity to earn a commission in the U.S Navy. This scholarship provides an extra year of academics and military orientation focused on preparing students for NROTC success.

Regent University applicants do not have to be Virginia residents to apply for this scholarship. For applicants who agree to a follow-on, four-year scholarship contract, the NPP Scholarship provides tuition, fees, room and living stipend for a one-year NROTC preparation program. NPP Scholarship recipients must meet the following criteria to be offered a follow-on NROTC scholarship:

- Before follow-on scholarship activation, successfully complete a Department of Defense medical exam and NROTC indoctrination training.
- Pursue a science/technical major.
- Maintain a 2.8 or better cumulative GPA (minimum 12 college credits per semester).
- Pass the Navy Physical Fitness Assessment once a semester with a score of “Good Low” or better.
- Maintain good standing with Regent University (e.g., maintain academic, disciplinary, and physical requirements).

We stand ready to assist you in completing your application and have included a checklist to ensure your NPP Scholarship application is complete. Please note you must complete both the NPP scholarship application and the Regent University application to be considered for this scholarship.

Submit the NROTC Preparatory Program Application and all required attachments to military@regent.edu.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Respectfully,

John Cordero, USMC (Ret.)
