

Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (CITI)

Who must complete CITI training?

The following individuals must complete CITI training prior to conducting human subjects research:

- Faculty researchers
- Faculty overseeing student human subject research projects
- Student researchers
- Research assistants or related staff

How do I enroll?

To begin taking CITI courses, follow these steps:

1. Go to the CITI Program website, <https://about.citiprogram.org/en/homepage/>
2. In the upper right corner, select "Register"
3. In "Select Your Organization Affiliation," type in Regent University
4. Check "I agree to Terms of Service"
5. Check "I affirm that I am an affiliate of Regent University"
6. Click "Continue to Create your CITI Program username/password" using your Regent email address as your username
7. Follow the remaining steps to register
8. Choose the appropriate course. You need to complete one of the following courses (choose the course most appropriate):

Social-Behavioral-Educational-Nursing Programs

Or

Communication

Either course will be accepted; however, be sure to choose the course that best aligns with your academic discipline.

How do I document completion of my CITI course?

1. Upon completion of required modules for your course, download a pdf certificate of completion and be sure to keep it for future documentation purposes for any course needs.
2. Also, keep this certificate and submit it to Regent's HSRC (or other appropriate Regent institutions) with your HSRC application to conduct your research

How long is my CITI certification good for?

Your CITI certification lasts 3 years. When your certificate expires, you must take the refresher for your course to renew certification.
