

Program Transition Point Success Plan

Leadership in Mathematics Education, M.Ed. and Ed.S. Program

Welcome to Regent University's Leadership in Mathematics, M.Ed. and Ed. S. Program. As you start your academic journey, this Program Transition Point Success Plan is your guide to important steps for successful program completion as well as helpful university and program resources.

Please review the taped program overview session(s) for further programmatic information: Session 1; Session 2 .

Click on each Program Transition Point to Access Information and Useful Program Resources

Transition Point 1: Program Admission & Progression to Internship

Transition Point 2: Internship and Culminating Experience

Transition Point 3: Graduation

Program Director Contact Information

Darwin E. Mills, Ed.D.
Program Director
Leadership in Mathematics Education
757-352-4162
dmills@regent.edu

Program Contacts and Course Pacing

- School of Education Faculty Contact Information
- School of Education Program Resources Page
 - Overview of Program (Download the Program Handbook)
 - Internship Resources & Forms (Access the Internship Handbook & Evaluation Forms)
- Course Offerings and Schedule (Canvas File located in Each Course)

Important Department and Student Resources Located on the My Regent Portal Page

- Academic Advising
- Academic Writing Coach
- Business Office
- Canvas Course Access
- Center for Student Happiness
- Degree Works
- Information Technology (IT) Department
- Registrar's Office
- University Library
- University Bookstore
- University Student Handbook (Located in each Course Syllabus)
- Virginia Department of Education \(VDOE\) Mathematics Specialist Competencies and the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation \(CAEP\) Advanced Licensure Standards Information

Graduation

- Application Deadlines and Information