

Employer Satisfaction (Initial & Advanced – VEAC)

VEAC employer survey results for 2024–2025 indicate that Regent University graduates are well-prepared to meet the needs of P–12 students, with an overall mean rating of 4.39 for initial licensure and 4.69 for advanced programs on a 5-point scale. These ratings indicate that graduates are perceived as “mostly ready” to “fully ready” for professional practice, with performance at the proficient level across InTASC-aligned competencies.
